The 2025 Kula Kula Festival will feature three exceptional Indian artists: Kalyan, Archik, and Aninibar. Renowned for their talent and humble presence, they will captivate audiences with classical Indian music across three performances at the stunning Oaga Art Resort.

An Evening Serenade at Sunset

Aninibar, an incredibly talented violinist, will grace the stage with a captivating solo performance during a sunset session. As the golden tones of the Maldivian sky transition into twilight, his enchanting melodies will create an atmosphere filled with serenity and wonder—a perfect harmony of nature's splendor and musical creativity.

Melodies Over Dinner at Kaa Kada

As guests dine at Kaa Kada, the enchanting sounds of Kalyan on sitar and Archik on tabla will transport them into a world of rhythm and melody. Their flawless collaboration highlights the richness of Indian classical music, intertwining complex rhythms with heartfelt tunes. This duo's performance will enhance the dining experience, providing guests with an evening rich in culture and sensory pleasure.

A Trio of Excellence at Sobi Bar

The festival reaches its peak with a thrilling afternoon session at Sobi Bar, featuring all three artists—Kalyan on sitar, Archik on tabla, and Aninibar on violin—coming together as a dynamic trio. The tables will be adorned with palm fronds, local textiles, and elements inspired by the island's natural beauty, creating an atmosphere that pays homage to Maldivian culture.
- Celebrate the bold and lively spirit of Brazil with a churrasco-inspired buffet, featuring succulent grilled meats, fresh salads, and tropical fruits. Colorful décor, including bright fabrics, samba-inspired centerpieces, and twinkling lights, will set the stage for an evening of vibrancy and joy, evoking the energy of a Brazilian carnival.
